Women's Club Notes

THE OAK LEAF ART CLUB.
The meeting of the Oak Leaf Art club at Mrs. Oden's was quite interesting. Many topics were discussed. The last meeting was with Mrs. Fowler, 1418 East Twenty-fourth street, and was well attended. Mrs. Crosthwait and others were visitors. After an elaborate and delicious luncheon was served Mrs. Crosthwait gave an interesting talk on the work of the federation and the good it has accomplished; also the needs of the Children's Home. The club donated $5 to the home and voted to contribute news to the Bulletin each week. The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. C. Ray, 325 Trope avenue, Kansas City, Kas.

COLORED ARTIST PAINTS COLORS

Works of Merits on Sale at Home and at the League Enterprise.

Among many other good things which we enjoy by way of men of genius and talent are mentioned R. J. Rice, who is putting out works of merit that please and command the attention of those who really prize the fine arts. By this we mean those who will pay $1.50 for a beautiful landscape up to $2.50 and $3.00 and as high as $60 for a painting that according to merit should bring $100. You didn't know we had such an artist, did you? Well we have. Mr. Rice is more than ordinary and has the technique in painting which is necessary to meet the demands of an exact as well as temperamental art. Up to date the artist's "Lion Painting" is his strongest plea for recognition among the patrons and critics. He has rather departed in some respects from the old school which has frequently delineated "The Master Beast" and gives a much stronger power to the lion in his natural majesty than many of the so-called masters.

In landscapes, fruit effects, character settings, and ocean views, the painter reaches a state of high perfection and in his "Visiting Minister," he shows a slight tinge of the comic as well as a degree of sarcasm, (by the way.) This picture is on exhibition in the show windows of the League Enterprise on Eighteenth street. Few pass that place without stopping to give the painting a few thoughtful moments of study. Several of the Rice collection are on sale at this place. And attendants are always glad to show the merits of the paintings as well as give any facts about the young artist who lives at 1015 Tracy and whose telephone is Main 2016 Bell. In the absence of the artist, Mrs. Rice, his cultured wife will kindly show you all of the paintings which are kept at their residence. The collection there includes the allan, every lover art should at least see. Remember you can buy a modest painting for your parlor or dining room for two or three dollars and have the satisfaction of knowing it to be from one of your race. Mr. Colored man what kind of pictures have you got in your house? Caucasian or Colored?

Electricity Cheap in Japan.
Electricity is cheap in Japan and the use of the current is becoming very general.

Among the Churches

ALLEN CHAPEL NOTES.
Go to church Sunday attracted an audience of more than 2,000 people to Allen chapel last Sunday and they were amply repaid both by the highly illuminated and intellectual sermon of our excellent minister and the matchless singing of our famous choir. The congregation began assembling at 10 o'clock, and by 11:30 standing room was at a premium. There were 34 additions to the church during the day, among whom were Dr. Wm. J. Thompson, the distinguished superintendent of the city hospital. At night the largest crowd that has been in Allen at evening services in a year was in attendance and the services were of a very high order. On Thursday night the 18 Western University chorus under Prof. R. G. Jackson and the new university band under Major N. Clark Smith, with the full uniformed student body of the institution will give a musical at the church. All are invited. On Monday next the Peck Mite Missionary society will entertain the Ministerial Alliance and an excellent program will be rendered. Tomorrow is boys' Sunday and 1,000 boys and young men are expected to be in attendance. The services will be wholly conducted by the boys. Boy choirs and boy ushers.

VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.
By GEO. W. TAYLOR.
Last Sunday our services were good. Our large auditorium was filled with persons anxious to hear the gospel on Go to Church Sunday. Our pastor of rejoicing. Two additions were made to the church. The Covenant meeting was continued until 5:30 at the B. Y. P. U. at which time a great shouting for joy was had and the old fashioned hand shaking added much to the spirit of the meeting. We will be glad when every person will feel that every Sunday is Go to Church Sunday and go some where and help lift the banner of Christianity higher. Unless we as a race draw closer together, his hand will ever be on us and we will suffer many things. Not only us but our children. So let us come nearer unto the Lord that He may bless us with an everlasting blessing.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH.
During the meeting of the City Conquest Union at this church recently, the new beautiful attendance banner was awarded to the Second Baptist B. Y. P. U. which had more members present than the Union of all the other churches in the city combined. Mrs. Mary Huff deserves special mention for giving all the books of the Bible in order without mistakes. Mrs. B. H. Brown, 1904 East Twenty-fifth street is ill. Mrs. Eva Smith, a soprano singer, has returned after a year's absence. The service last Sunday broke all record in enthusiasm and attendance in the history of this church. At the morning services Dr. Bacote's sermon, "The Thirst of the Soul" was delivered with much eloquence amid many tears and much shouting. In the afternoon this great sacred edifice was filled with such a multitude that standing room was at a premium, both on the main floor and gallery. After a glorious service the pastor baptized sixty-two new born saints. At the evening service the Lord's supper was given to an unusually large number. This was certainly a Pentecostal day. During the revival 191 additions were made to the church and 114 were candidates for baptism. The Lord has crowned our efforts with a great harvest of souls. Glory to His name.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH.
Bethel has closed protracted meeting; for there is always a revival in Bethel. We thank the Lord for giving us fifty-four souls as the result of four weeks' labor. Forty-eight added to our membership, and six joined other churches. During the meeting, all the auxiliaries were abandoned in the interest of saving souls for Christ. Revs. F. D. Douglas, and J. P. Howard assisted our Pastor, Rev. F. D. Wells, in the meeting. Sunday will be Boys' Day. We hope to swell our attendance to 200 in addition to our regular Endeavor attendance of 75 each Sunday at 6:30 p. m. The Boy Scouts, under the directions of Scout Master H. Williams met Wednesday evening, and listened to an address by Prof. J. D. Bousier. Boy Scouts and Scout-lung. Dr. T. A. Jones gave the boys a very interesting lecture, on the first aid to the injured. The Golden Leaf Club will meet as usual on Wednesday evening of each week.

THE STORY OF WENDELL PHILLIPS.

By Charles Edward Russell.

When, before the war, Wendell Phillips denounced chattel slavery, he was assailed by the slaveholding interests of the South; when, after the war, he rejected all proffers of high political office and threatened wage-slavery, he was assailed by the manufacturing interests of the North. In both instances he threatened somebody's profits. That was all, and for this reason Southern fire-eaters offered a price for his head.

Yet, in his long life of ceaseless activities, he debated for no crown, argued for no fees, strove for no reward, sought no place nor any fame, cared for no achievement for its own sake, and used his unequalled gifts only for some cause of justice or freedom in which he could earn nothing but obloquy, hatred and isolation.

No man ever gave up more for the sake of his faith. All his brilliant career was wrecked in an instant. His friends and family deserted him. Some of his relatives declared that he was insane and planned to have him confined in an asylum. The press covered him with ridicule and abuse.
For more than twenty years he lived in daily danger of his life, with a price on his head.
When a cause was won, as in the case of the abolition of slavery in the South, and in the natural revulsion of popular feeling men sought to make him its hero, he put aside their tributes and demanded their attention to the next unpopular reform.
Compared with such a career, the stories of the men that on the grounds of material triumph have won place in the world's regard, seem poor indeed. They toiled for themselves, or for the glory of achievement.
This man's single and unselfish purpose was to win better conditions for the unfortunate, wherever they might be, to strive against injustice, to further brotherhood, to spread liberty.
As ardently as other men sought wealth and power, he sought the Common Good.
This is an outline of the story Russell tells in this book of 185 pages, including many glowing passages from Phillips' speeches. Almost any capitalist publishing house would have paid the author handsomely for this book if "toned down." Russell prefers to have us print it unexpurgated, at a price the workers can pay. So we offer it in neat strong cloth binding at 50c postpaid.

Russell's Doing Us Good and Plenty, an up-to-date campaign book, is published in the same style at the same price. His Stories of the Great Railroads, a much larger book, will be mailed for $1.00. Address
